

Summary Notation: ArchiMate 3 Business Advanced

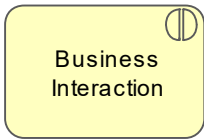

Notation based on The Open Group ArchiMate 3.0 Specification

A Business Collaboration represents business roles working together.

A business collaboration is an aggregate of two or more business roles.

A Business Interaction models behavior performed by multiple business roles working together.

A business collaboration is assigned to perform a business interaction.

A Business Interface models a channel by which business services are offered to external parties.

An internal business role is a composite that provides a business interface which serves an external business role.

A Representation models prospective physical implementations of a business object.

A representation realizes (implements) a business object.

A Product represents a physical item for sale or collection of services packaged for sale.

A product is an aggregation of business services.

A Contract is the legal framework for a product.

A product aggregates a contract.