

Summary Notation: ArchiMate 3 Physical

Notation based on The Open Group ArchiMate 3.0 Specification

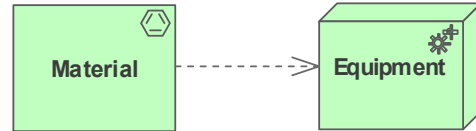

Material

Material represents any raw material used in a production process.

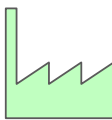

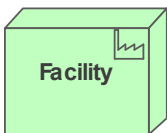

Equipment

Equipment models equipment used in a production process.

Equipment accesses (consumes or produces) material.

Facility

A Facility models a physical structure or environment such as a factory, office or warehouse

A facility is assigned to equipment that it houses.

A Distribution Network describes distribution or transport infrastructure.

Facilities are associated with the distribution network that interlinks them. The distribution network can have an association with the material that it transports.